REPORTS and Old-New Business

David, K8IP, gave the treasurer's report with a current bank balance of $2,010.31 after member dues of $192.00 received and a coax purchase of $340.00.

OLD Business, David, K8IP

- VE Kit coming from WCARS
- ARES Nuclear Drill, Mar. 18019
- Amateur courses on CD/DVD

Looking for presentations for UCARS meeting nights. These could be, but not limited to:
Contesting including procedures and logging. (Good with Field Day coming up)
QSL Bureau and how it works
CPR Training

Interest was expressed in having more of the ICS courses for ARES

New Business

Tower at the Red Cross location. Some of the sections are in need of cleanup
Will need a wall bracket. (There is still discussion with landlord on location.)
Field Day planning team is Norm, KO4CB and Paul, KK4NKN

Jed, KI4UER asked for antenna help.

Members: Paul, KK4NKN Chris, AE4WS David, K8IP and Norm, KO4CB Offered to help.
(Note this did happen on Saturday following this meeting, Thanks, Guys!)

Next was a green light session on how to get equipment for the Red Cross location and also at the Monroe courthouse.

Grants. Some companies, like Duke Energy like to give funding for community causes.
Members. Donations of needed equipment can come from the membership.
One need is for UHF and VHF antennas

Reminder that the June 19th club meeting is just a week before Field Day, June 28-29.

50/50 drawing was held and $13 was added to the club treasury

Bill, KB4NET adjourned at 8:49 PM. (Next meeting April 14th, 2014)

Respectfully Submitted,
Leon, WX6I
