David, K8IP, gave the treasurer's report. The current balance (September 2014) of $1,380.90

A great breakfast was enjoyed by all on the regular 2nd Sat morning. This time it was at Hill Top. Everyone agreed that we should keep it here for a while. So remember next UCARS breakfast will be at the same place, that is, Hill Top in Monroe.

Paul, KK4NKN, and Chris, AE4WS, volunteered to put up the antenna at the court house in Monroe.

Ron, W4RON, is securing display area for UCARS at the WarBirds Over Monroe Air Show, Nov 8th & 9th, held at the Charlotte-Monroe Executive Airport.

Chris, AE4WS, and Christopher, KK4WJL, are will be working on the slate of officers to be elected for the coming year.

Discussion was made about the pros and cons of getting insurance to protect the club at events. David, K8IP, had researched the insurance offered by ARRL since they best needs for Ham Radio. The cost is about $200/yr. Motion made by Chris, AE4WS, and 2nd by Mark, KK4RNB. Unanimous vote.

The group decided to have the UCARS Christmas dinner on the 2nd Saturday at Big Bob Gibson

Training Chris, Marcos, K3MJB, made the motion and it was 2nd by Brad, AK4RE. $50. (?)

50/50 won by Mark, KK4RNB. He gave all proceeds to the treasury.

David Keever K8IP, adjourned at 8305 PM.

Respectfully Submitted,
Leon, WX6I
